New Formica Gloss Panels:

Accessible style for Australia's interiors

Decorative surfaces brand Formica is commanding attention indoors with the introduction of its panels gloss offering, ideal for designers looking to create a visually striking and unique interior.

An innovative range of surfaces that allows a desirable gloss finish to be achieved without the premium price, Formica Gloss Panels are suitable for a variety of applications across domestic and commercial projects, including cabinetry, doors, drawers, vertical panels and shop fittings.

Featuring nine popular colours specially selected from the Formica Colour Collection, the gloss panels perfectly complement the fashionable Formica Colour Collection offering a complete design solution.

Ranging from the soft tones of Warm White and Birch, to the stylish woodgrain finishes of Fini Chocolate and Refined Oak, each of the decors also has matching gloss ABS edging, facilitating the range's ease of use.

Moisture-resistant and easy to clean, the double-sided decorative panels ensure that homes and commercial interiors will withstand the wear and tear of a busy lifestyle, continuing to impress for years to come.

The 16mm thick paneling is available in a sheet size of 2400x1200mm and comes with a reassuring seven year limited warranty.

For more information on the extensive Formica offering, please visit formica.com.au or call 132 136.

Decors: Snowdrift, Warm White, Antique Wiluna White, Birch, Fini Chocolate, Vincenza Walnut, Mist Grey, Charred Oak, Refined Oak
