

Laminex[®] Fusion[®] Surfaces Design Source Update: 14 new designs explore new realms for interior surfaces

With an explosion of individuality and expressionism driving today's designs, Laminex has introduced 14 invigorating new designs to its Fusion[®] Surfaces range.

A revolutionary concept in surface design, Laminex Fusion Surfaces is the product of choice for architects and designers looking to combine unique creative expression and functionality in residential and commercial interior spaces, with limitless design possibilities available through its Design Source, Customart and Solids categories.

The addition of 14 striking new designs to the Fusion Design Source category gives designers a superior resource for contemporary and unique digitally printed design solutions that can be used to create eye-catching feature walls, cupboards, partitions, furniture, table tops, ceilings – the possibilities are endless.

Falling under the Inspired by Nature and Abstract Design Source sub-categories, each of the inspirational new designs has been specially created to reflect emerging trends towards individuality and creative expression in interior design, focusing on the diversity of the world in which we live.

The designs draw inspiration from the influence of urban living and the natural world contrasted by the constructed environments, highlighting elements of nature, street art, decorative and ornate patterns.

Whether used in commercial or domestic projects, for interior fitouts or customised pieces of furniture, the 14 new designs are guaranteed to create a striking visual impact in any application.

About Fusion Surfaces

In addition to over 300 pre-created laminate designs available through Design Source, design professionals can also create their own surface through Fusion

Customart, which allows any image or colour to be digitized and fused into the surface of a Fusion laminate.

Inspiration can also be found in Fusion Solids, which offers over 350 colours – the largest range of laminate colours available – whilst the Fusion Wall Mural category offers large-scale single images of landscape, nature and abstract images.

Suitable for an array of applications, Laminex Fusion is a finished laminate that can be transformed into tabletops, counters, wall panels, ceilings, benches, signs, cupboards and murals, offering a complete design solution.

All Fusion Surfaces are custom made from one sheet to thousands and use the latest innovations in large format digital print technology to ensure consistency across each surface.

Offering an infinite choice of design options, Fusion Surfaces come with an impressive 7-year limited warranty.
